Moscow, December 17.

THE Empress made a Present last Week to the Great Chancellor of as much Land in Livonia as is worth 100,000 Roubles, and Count Osterman's House at Petersbourg. The Great Duke and Dutchess, with their Families, left this Place the 15th Instant. The Empress set out for Petersbourg this Morning, and the Foreign Ministers will all follow successively.

Petersbourg, December 22. Her Imperial Majesty arrived here on the 20th in the Evening in perfect good Health. She was only attended by the Vice-Chancellor Count Waranzoff, Count Lestock, two Gentlemen of the Bed-chamber, and some few Ladies. The Great Duke and Dutchess are expected this Evening, and the Chancellor To-morrow.

Turin, Jan. 3. This Court has received Advice by an Express, that six Battalions of the Spanish Army under the Command of M. d'Arembourg, were advanced to Oneille, from whence the Sardinian Commandant had been obliged to withdraw to il Marro.

Florence, Jan. 5. The Suspicions that M. de Gages had a View of undertaking something by assembling his Troops in the State of Viterbo, encrease daily from the Steps he continues to take, which have raised a Jealousy that he may march through this State by Pisa, &c. to join his Troops to those of Don Philip on the Frontiers of Lombardy, and that he will advance in Proportion as the Spanish Troops advance in the State of Genoa. All the Spanish Troops are in Motion to draw near to Viterbo. Those that were quartered in Abruzzo, file off towards Rieti; and it is the general Opinion, that as soon as they are all assembled, M. de Gages will begin his Operations. The Director of the Artillery, who was at Rome, on sudden Orders which he received, departed from thence in the Night of the 1st Instant, to make Dispositions for the March of the Artillery on the first Notice. Of the German Invalids that were brought into Tuscany, upwards of 600 are in March from Pisa to join the Austrian Army, the Head Quarters of which are at Imola. The Letters which came in last Night from Lombardy bring an Account, that a Discovery had been made at Milan of a Design which about 400 Miquelets and new Recruits, who were in that Castle, had formed to set Fire to the Magazine of Powder, and to kill the principal Officer, the Discovery of which was made a few Hours before it was to have been executed, and the principal Accomplices arrested, whose Tryals are now carrying on, and the Waraldins and Hussars that were quarter'd at Pavia and Lodi, have been sent to Milan.

Genoa, Jan. 7. Marquis Castellar, with upwards of 3000 Men, is arrived at Oneille, the rest of the Spanish Army is following them, they have also sent for the Cavalry from Nice and Villa Franca; at Port Maurice they have got 26 Field Pieces, some Mortars, with a Quantity of Powder and Provisions, Part of which has been brought by Sea, and Part by Land from Nice. Orders are also given for the French Troops to follow, and some Regiments are already in March. The Peasants are actually repairing the Roads in the Riviera, and are directed therein by two or three Spanish Engineers. Don Philip is still at Nice, and we have Advice, that it was not determined, whether he would pass the Winter there, or advance with the Army to this City. Eighty Mules loaden with Money were arrived there from Spain. This Republick has already on Foot 14 or 15000 Men, and is still raising new Troops.

Ratisbon, Jan. 14, N. S. The Vanguard of the Corps of French Troops, which is marching from Suabia, and is said to be of 15000 Men, has already entered the Bishoprick of Eichstet; in all likelihood they will take the same Route with about 4000 other French Troops which belong to the Imperial Army, who are broke up from Kelheim, and direct their March towards Dietfurt. These last have a Train of Artillery with them, and have detached 300 Men, with four Cannon, to secure Hemmau. Letters from General Bernclau's Corps in the Upper Palatinate bring Advice, that the General of the Artillery, Thungen, having battered the Town of Amberg for some Days, the Garrison, consisting of 900 Men, had capitulated, and obtained an Armistice of 24 Hours, in order to send to Munich for Instructions. General Bernclau writes writes Word, that he intends in a few Days to return hither. Count Choteck, who is again appointed by the Queen of Hungary Preſident of the Adminiſtration in the Upper Palatinate, has ſettled Winter Quarters in the Bavarian Territories, and thoſe of Neuburg, in that Province, for about 25000 Men of the Auſtrian Troops.

Berlin, Jan. 16, N. S. A Courier is arrived from the Prince of Anhalt Deſſau, with Advice, that the Corps under his Command having paſſed the Neiſs, the Auſtrians retired with Loſs, and abandoned the Towns of Troppau and Jagerndorff.

Hague, Jan. 22, N. S. By an Expreſs arrived here from Paris of the 19th Inſtant, we learn, that all the Galleons that were expected at Cadiz, were ſafely got in there, under the Convoy of Admiral de las Torres. By our freſheſt Letters from the Side of Ratisbon, Amberg was inveſted by the Auſtrians, but the French and Imperialiſts here pretend to have received Advice, that the Beſiegers had been repulſed with Loſs in an Attempt they made to take that Town by Storm. M. de Dieu was to ſet out as Yeſterday from Amſterdam for the Court of Ruſſia. M. d'Aylva ſets forward the Beginning of next Week for the Empire, M. Burriſh having already preceded him, and M. Twickle ſets out for Bonne towards the End of it. By Letters of Yeſterday from Bruſſels, the Duke of Aremberg propoſed to ſet out for Bonne laſt Night. M. Maillebois is ſaid to be reinforcing himſelf by ſmall Detachments ſent him out of Franconia, Alſace and Lorraine. By Advice from Liſle, we hear, that M. de Ceberet paſſed through that Town lately, but that it was not known whither he was going, and that it was the common Diſcourſe there, that the French were preparing for ſome Enterprize, which would be executed as ſoon as the Ice would bear. From Cambrai we hear, that a Detachment was lately ſent from that Town on the Side of St. Omers, Aire, and the neighbouring Places, for the Scaling Ladders which have been lately made in thoſe Towns, and that a great Number were likewiſe making at Douay. From Ypres there is Advice, that the French Engineers have lately drawn a Plan for making Inundations to the Royal Gate of that Town. A Director has been put under Arreſt for having cauſed Part of the Reformed Church there to be demoliſhed without Orders. From Rocroi, Marienbourg, Charleville, Mezieres, Philippeville, and Maubeuge it is written, that an Order is come countermanding the Levies of the Militia till further Orders.
